

March GARDEN EVENT, A COMMUNITY CELEBRATION at the SFS Annex in Berkeley, CA. Attendees felt their creative spirits blossom much like the spring flowers blooming in the garden. Along with local textile artists, Lithuanian weaver-artist Virginija Stigaite offered a trunk show while raising funds for Ukrainian refugees. Svetlana Gous Stanislavskaya presented an art installation “Breathe with Me,” in and out of the garden.

July LIVE IN-PERSON WORKSHOP SERIES at SFS Annex culminating in a public garden event and trunk shows. Immersive workshops were given by Japanese Sashiko artisan Atsushi Futatsuya and by Tomoko Torimaru on Moroccan Tablet Weaving. And master Indian embroiderer Asif Shaikh gave a superb presentation and a demonstration.

World Shibori Network Foundation (# 88-3551186) is registered in the state of California. It has recently submitted an application for 501(c)(3) public charity status (retroactive to its date of formation), and its 501(c)(3) status is currently pending and awaiting formal approval from the IRS. We anticipate receiving this status in the next few months, and once received, we will recognize your gift as tax-deductible to the extent allowed by law.

SLOWFIBERTV was launched offering STREAMED LIVE UNCUT RECORDINGS of Hiroshi Murase's Shibori Workshops and Michel Garcia's Natural Dye Workshops as well as presentations by international artisans, artists, designers, and scholars. A portion of proceeds from streamed workshops goes to presenters through our support of the Monozukuri program.

CONVERSATIONS WITH CLOTH ONE and TWO: Historical and Contemporary Shibori Practices in countries of Africa, America, Asia, and the West was hosted by Ana Lisa Hedstrom and Yoshiko I. Wada with prominent international guests.

CONVERSATIONS WITH CLOTH THREE: Stitchery Stories included six diverse talks on Boro, Sashiko, and the origins of stitchery by Yoshiko I. Wada (Japan, UK), Takao Momiyama (Sweden), Atsushi Futasuya (USA), Tomoko Torimaru (Ancient China), and Gao Yu (Miao China)

WORLD SHIBORI NETWORK and SLOW FIBER STUDIOS successes since the pandemic lockdown began include:

Launch of a new dynamic website, making WORLD SHIBORI NETWORK FOUNDATION the umbrella for all our activities, including Slow Fiber Studios.
